1. [redacted] telephoned concerning the possibility that a covert contact of some importance would wish to meet with Congressmen several weeks from now when he is in town in connection with [redacted] situation. I suggested that we check the matter when the plans are more firm since Congress is not in session and very few members are here.

2. [redacted] telephoned to advise that the birthdate [redacted] [redacted] is correct and the matter is coordinated with Immigration and there should be no difficulty if he files for citizenship with this date. Miss Creagan in Congressman Judd's (D., Minn.) office will be advised.

3. [redacted] telephoned concerning the possible appearance of General Gahill before the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee to indicate that he planned to furnish a copy of the statement to the FBI the day prior to the scheduled hearing for information. It will not be cleared in advance with the Department of State.

4. Miss Smith, in the office of Congressman Cornelius E.
Gallagher, (D., N.J.) called to inquire on the status of the application of [redacted]

[redacted] was advised that while we had hoped that we might do something for [redacted] at an early date, our investigating procedures had been slowed up and it was doubtful that we would be able to take definite action [redacted] in less than 60-90 days. Miss Smith accepted this with some disappointment and asked that we keep the Congressman posted. [redacted] was asked to be sure to tickle this case to keep Gallagher informed.
